

The Daily Dallas Herald.

VOL. 2.

DALLAS, TEXAS, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 2, 1874.

NO. 148

TELEGRAPHIC.

Special Dispatches to the Dallas Daily Herald.

Cuba.

HAVANA, August 1.—The merchants of this city have entered into an agreement to charge one percent above the regular rates on all shipments and consignments or disbursements on behalf of vessels, and on all freights obtained or money collected therefor, and one fourth of one percent on all bills of exchange negotiated on commission, from and after this date, the proceeds of such extra charges to be paid to the government as a contribution toward its maintenance.

The Beecher Scandal.

NEW YORK, August 1.—The Beecher investigation committee sat until midnight. Nothing is known of the proceedings except the proffer of testimony by Victoria Woodhull, who rode to the door in a carriage, but which was rejected. It was supposed that Mrs. Tilton was again examined, as at the conclusion of the sitting a lady closely veiled was escorted by a member of the committee to Mr. Ovington's residence.

Destructive Fire at Muskegon.

DETROIT, August 1.—A fire broke out in Muskegon, at an early hour this morning, and has destroyed nearly half of the city. The fire is in the eastern portion of the city, and it is believed that a number of miles have been destroyed. About ten squares were burned over.

Fire in East St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, August 1.—What appears to be a large fire has been raging in east St. Louis since midnight, but telegraphic communication can not be obtained with that portion of the city, and no information can be given at this hour.

Cremated.

BATHURST, N. S., August 1.—Ritchie's steam mill, at Newcastle, was consumed by fire yesterday. A young man named Hollan, an employee of the mill, was burned in the flames. Loss very heavy.

Railroad Warehouses Burned.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., August 1.—All the warehouses of the Hudson and Port Stanley railroad, five in number, together with a private dwelling, were destroyed by fire last night.

Drowned.

BOSTON, August 1.—The steamer John Homer run down and sunk a sail boat off Long Island with five men whose names are not known. All were drowned.

Death from Sunstroke.

SHERMAN, August 1.—Owen Down, a laborer, engaged in digging a cellar here for M. Schneider, met his death to-day by a sunstroke.

Postponed.

SARATOGA, August 1.—The races were postponed on account of rain.

STATE ITEMS.

Wheat is now selling for one dollar and five cents at Sherman.

Two cases of diphtheria made their appearance in McKinney last week.

The McKinney Enquirer has received an open ball of cotton.

W. H. Lockett, of Powell Dale, reports a protracted meeting, and great revival of religion, with forty-two accessions to the church (Baptist) at that place.

A very interesting meeting has been in progress at the Christian church in this city during the present week. Elder Charles Carlton has been conducting the meeting. Up to the present time there has been four new members added to the church, and many members attached themselves to the congregation here.—[Sherman Courier.

The crop of cotton has never been better than it is this year in Tarrant county. It is estimated that Tarrant will ship this season not less than five thousand bales of its own production, and at least twenty thousand bales, the products of Johnson, Hood, Erath, Palo Pinto, Parker, Jack, Wise and Denton counties, or six hundred car loads, which, at fifteen cents per pound, will make an exportation of $1,800,000.—[Settler's Guide.
